Native of Norway Dies of Heart Complications

Ole Quandahl, a native of Norway, but for the past four years a resident of Groton, died Sunday from heart trouble and its complications. He was 81 years of age at the time of his death.

Mr. Quandahl was born in Hardenger, Norway, in 1853, and came to this country in 1857, settling near Decorah, Iowa, where he resided until moving to South Dakota in 1904. He settled near Verdon and moved to Groton four years ago.

He was married in 1882 to Miss Rachel Ringoen, at Ulvik, Hardenger, Norway, and to this union four children were born, all of whom survive him together with his wife. They are: Mrs. O. T. Quandahl, his wife; T. O. Quandahl, Howard, S. D.; Nels Quandahl, Verdon, S. D.; Mrs. F. E. Ball, Verdon, and Olaf Quandahl, Groton.

The funeral was held from the F. E. Ball home Wednesday afternoon at 1:00 o'clock and from the First English Lutheran church at 2:00 p. m., conducted by Rev. Melford S. Knutson, and the remains were laid to rest in Groton cemetery.
